tle Trouble To-Day.

Finttery, Jewel H., Vespasian, Van S. and Panhandle May Win.

The racing at Guttenburg to-day will be well worth the journey to the bill. The card is splendidly made up, and, if appearances go for anything, the faces will be closely contested throughout.

The mile race should be especially interest. Baibriggan, the easy winner of yesterday's mile event, is entered again, but she is meeting much better horses in Headlight Harry Alonzo, Thorndele and others. This race should be well fought.

Flattery, Mabel Gleon, Uncertainty, Logan and Schipse coght to furnish a very pretty race at six and a half furlougs, and there are some very fast ones in the four and s half turiong dash.
The track will be drg and tast.
